

Your way into quiet

Every length is a plan, not a contract. You remain free to stop, shorten, move, or seek help at any time.

1. My starting length: what I can honestly manage right now

Begin with one to five minutes. If that feels manageable, add a few minutes in a later session. Stay at the same length for as long as you need.

2. My form of silence

- ☐ Still: sitting with Scripture or a prayer phrase
- ☐ Moving: slow walking or gentle movement, without digital input
- ☐ Supported: eyes open, a neutral sound, a trusted person nearby

Eyes: ☐ open ☐ closed None of these is more spiritual than the others. You may change your mind.

3. My anchor phrase for the first session

4. Which fear in this lesson is closest to mine? One sentence.

An anchor card to cut out and keep in your Bible

Cut along the edge. Say your line slowly and inwardly when you notice you have wandered, and then let it go again.

MY ANCHOR

“For God alone my soul waits in silence.”

Psalms 62:1 · ESV

Or my own line:

Before My Retreat

Private, for you alone. It is not a test, it does not score or diagnose anything, and completing it is not clearance to proceed. At the start of Part 3, you can confirm your retreat plan.

1. Readiness: my path from Lesson 5

- ☐ Proceed independently. Keep your support person's number to hand. The silence is always adjustable.
- ☐ Proceed with support. Agree with your support person when and how you will be in touch.
- ☐ Use an adapted plan. Shorter, moving or supported silence is a full way to take part.
- ☐ Postpone for now. Postponing is not failing. It may be the wisest way to prepare.

If I wish: the person I will call if a session becomes too much

2. Practical arrangements

- | | |
|---|---|
| ☐ Dates and place settled | ☐ Phone arrangement tested |
| ☐ Support person told | ☐ Responsibilities handed over |
| ☐ Food, medication and sleep planned | ☐ Intention written |

3. My retreat format: the plan from Lesson 6, confirmed or changed

- | | |
|--|---|
| ☐ The Three-Day Christian Renewal Retreat | ☐ The One-Day Retreat With God |
| ☐ The Three-Hour Spiritual Reset | ☐ The At-Home Retreat |

Dates and place:

The silence is always adjustable. If silence brings panic, flashbacks, a feeling of unreality or severe distress: stop, open your eyes, move, and ground yourself (name where you are, the date, and things you can see, hear and touch). If you hear a voice others cannot hear, particularly one giving commands or threats, do not assume it is God: end the retreat and seek prompt professional assessment. Immediate danger, chest pain, fainting or severe breathlessness: call your local emergency number. Thoughts of harming yourself, or not being able to stay safe: call your local emergency number or a crisis line now. Distress without immediate danger: contact a qualified professional or a crisis support service.
